A PROUD FAMILY BEHIND A PROUD NAME

In keeping with a name as bold as its taste, Azteca Azul is produced by one of the finest tequila makers in the world, Tequila Supremo, owned and operated by La Familia Camarena of Arandas, Jalisco. Founded originally by Agustin Camarena in 1938, the Camarena Family has built Tequila Supremo into one of the largest and most successful producers of tequila in existence.

A PRODUCTION PROCESS LIKE NO OTHER

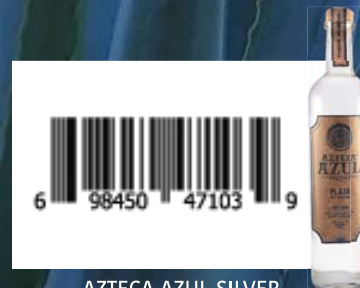

Azteca Azul is a 100% pure agave, created in the highlands of Mexico, regarded as the ultimate producing environment by virtue of its red soil, altitude and climate. The agave is cooked and cooled in traditional brick furnaces, a process that lasts 48 hours. As with all of Tequila Supremo's fine products, Azteca Azul is distilled twice, then aged in small 200 liter American Oak barrels, assuring more contact between the tequila and the oak. Finally, Tequila Supremo has developed and patented in Mexico, a process known as Zero D, which ensures that the distillery emits no waste charges. Tequila Supremo was the first tequila producer to be 100% environmentally friendly.
