

Malbec from the EXTREMELY high elevation valley known as Cafayate, in the region of Salta, Argentina. Far more North than Mendoza and these vines are grown above 5000 feet!

91
Wine & Spirits

P
O
I
N
T
S

"This is steak wine...meaty char with brightness and its blueberry fruit gets along quite well with the granitic mineral notes and the burly tannins."

90

P
O
I
N
T
S

"Herbal, saucy berry and cassis aromas with a gamy note that adds complexity. A chippy palate is jammy but anchored by tannins. Roasted, herbal black-fruit flavors finishes with chocolaty oak, mint, wild herbs and roasted black fruits."

WWW.CRAFTEDBRANDS.COM